

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 328

Expressing the sense of Congress that, during this holiday season, peace may prevail in the Middle East.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DECEMBER 20, 2001

Ms. KAPTUR submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that, during this holiday season, peace may prevail in the Middle East.

Whereas Christians, Jews, and Muslims look to this season as a holiday time to celebrate and reflect on the highest aspirations of humankind;

Whereas the holy places of these religions are jeopardized by continued conflict;

Whereas this holiday season presents an opportunity for renewal and hope;

Whereas acts of violence have replaced acts of peace in Israel and the Palestinian territories; and

Whereas a sincere desire for peace is held by a vast majority of those residing in the troubled region: Now, therefore, be it
